Paediatric Diabetes - Disability Living Allowance - Personal Independence Payment

Disability Living Allowance (DLA)

If your child is 15 or under and has extra care or mobility needs due to a medical need, you can apply for Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for them. If they're 16 or over they would need to apply for Personal Independence Payment (PIP).

DLA is a benefit to help with the extra costs of raising a child with a medical need. It takes into account your child's mobility and care needs. DLA is not means-tested.

Care component

- lowest rate - help for some of the day
- middle rate - frequent help / constant supervision either in the day or at night
- highest rate - help/ supervision both day and night

If your child is awarded DLA, you may qualify for Carer's Allowance

Eligibility

Usually, to qualify for Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for children the child must:

Personal Independence Payment (PIP)

Personal Independence Payment (PIP) was introduced in 2013 to replace Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for new claimants ages 16 to 64. PIP is not means-tested and isn't affected by earnings, other income or savings.

PIP assessments

Existing Disability Living Allowance claimants are only reassessed if:

- An existing DLA claimant's fixed-term award is ending soon.
- An existing applicant is approaching age 16.
- The Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) receives information about a change in their care or mobility.

From October 2015 all working-aged people still receiving DLA will be reassessed and if their claim is successful, moved onto PIP.

If you were 65 or over on 8 April 2013 and receiving DLA, you can continue to receive it if you satisfy the entitlement conditions.

How to claim PIP

- Calling the PIP Claim Line Telephone 0800 917 2222
